Although a large amount of long stock was distributed during the rapid advance of Tuesday and Wednesday, the supply, which is seeking a market at present levels, is large, and realizing proceeded whenever opportunity offered. Sales from this source constituted another depressing influence.

The most extensive movements of the day among the active stocks were in Reading and Amalgamated Copper, both of which rose a point, only to fall back again. Amalgamated Copperaitracted a large following by reason of the continued reports of a substantial improvement in the coppermetal trade, and the bellef that there still existed a large short interest in this stock, which was attempting to cover. The fertilizer stocks were exceptionally heavy. Virginia-Carolina Chemical American Cotton Oil all failing back, apparently on account of the bellef that the terms of the settlement of the potash dispute with German increases were not as favorable as had been hoped for.

It became known to-day that the first financing projects of Missouri Pai' cific, in connection with the rehabilitation of the property, would be announced shortly, and probably would take the form of a three-year note issue of $20,000,000 or $25,000,000. The notes are expected to provide cash for improvements and betterments for the debt of between $4,000,000 and $5,000,000. The street displayed no enthusiasm over the project, and Missouri Pacific shared in the general heaviness of the market. Indications of better trade conditions continued to be received, although they are not shiftenently general to justify definite expectations of widespread activity, making a much more favorable comparison with last year than has been the case for a long time.

with last year than has been the case of for a long time.

Over year money showed a further a hardening tendency to-day. The recent large bond market and that of the last few days in stock created a demand which is the primary reason advanced for the stiffer rates. To these factors may be added the fortner coming Panama bonds and financing a corporate character.

The bond market was firm early in the day, but later became irregular. Total sales par value $3,083,000. United a States 2's coupon and i's coupon decidined 1-4, and the 4's registered 1-5 on call.
